National Characteristics.

Some extracts from the "Unpublished Journal of Travel" of a very original thinker and shrewd observer, are given in a recent number of an English ungazine. A. crip mong them is the following, in reference to the characteristics of several nations:

"Once upon a time, I lost my way in New York. Asker Yankee: he immediately stopped, turned his back to me, put his hands into his pockets, and bligan to whistles I was just going to ask some one else. when I heard him say, through his pose, that if I would follow him, he would show me those fine English Straw Bonnets, to which having a very fine stock of Trimmings, we ask the attention of the ladies. some half a mile out of his road. Once upon a time, I lost my way in London. Asked Englishman: he stopped exactly the fifteenth part of a second, said first turn to the left, second turn to the right, and there you are sir!' Once upon a time, I lost my way in Paris. Asked Freehmant he was very volative, and explained very politely. Once upon a time, I lost my way in the town of Augsburg. Asked a German: off went his Augsburg. Asked a German: off went his to customers an unsurpassed assortment in every hat, and off went his tongue with a volubilidepartment of business, to which the attention of friends and the public is respectfully invited.

Availing ourselves of the present occasion to delightful and most confusing. But where is the difference between the Frenchman and the German? True, they are at first and the German? True, they are at first b eight much alike; look closer, and you will see the motive is utterly different. In the variety of all the most popular styles and fabrics of German it is engerness to please you; in the Frenchman it is a desire you should be pleased with him. It is as plain as if they said so, in so many words."

Not Married.

Our readers will recollect the case of a young lady of this city, mentioned in the Standard a day or two since, who went crazy because her lover deserted her for another lady. Rumor has it now that the faithless swain has hard work to make it Housekeeping GOODS of ALL KINDS. stick. The story is substantially as follows .

At Clifton Springs, a short time sine, a gay party were assembled-nmong them Miss M. of Buffale, and Frank N. of Syra- Dry Goods, cuse. In the course of the evening, guity began to flag, and some one proposed a marriage. Up springs the gay young Miss M. and expressed a willingness to be the bride. She was followed by Frank N. who joyfully consented to be the groom. A young gentleman present, who sometimes deals in jewelry, and is well known in Syracuse cir- Jos. S. After the ceremony was over, the groom gave his bride to understand that he considered it as binding. She demurred and started for her home at Buffalo, the baffled bridegroom following, and pressing his claim at the house of her father. He was sent about his business, with some striking specimens of parental indignation from the lady's father. Matters at present are in a statu quo.

SOMETHING NEW AND VALUABLE. The most powerful Riog on the face of the globe now religns supreme in the American Republic. The power of the crowned heads of Kurope sink into insignificance when compared to that of our American Riog.

European Kings employ the power vested in them to increase the riches of the rich and lordly, and to reduce to greater misery and degradation the poor and describent. Our American Ring goes forth with equal willingness to the lordly mansion and humble cabin, ready alike to administer relief and to offer health and happplness to the left and lowly, the rich and the poor.

DR. JOHN BULL'S

You have only to use this magical remedy. All those who rall suffer, and will not accept the profesred balin, deserts not the play of their families.

This woulderful medicine, during the brief period since its introduction, has carried impiness to the heart of thousands, and made life a charm to many who herefore regarded it only as a painful and miserable existence. To the winds with all Lindments, Embrocations, Pain Rillers, and Fain Extractors, and let millions of glad tongues proclaim the merits of the great "American King of Pain." a preparation composed soing of regetables and roots, produced by America's own rich and bouncious soil.

King of Pain." a preparation composed solely of regatables and roots, produced by America's own rich and bountsons soil.

We would ask the Laditz, who are always competent indiges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a slugis triat, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well and often of it, and see that it is used by their afflicted neighbors. The Ladites are always charitable, and when they induce their sufficing friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of This is a poserful and trait magical remedy for all external disasses, sores, swallings, burns, he, and for many invental afflictions, is is a certain curve, yet it is perfectly harmiess, and incapable of producing the least inductions of the most dislete cases of the swakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of wonders performed by this medicine. It notes but twenty-five cents to try it; and Dr. Buil stakes his well-examed reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask. have you the Rhemmatism or Gout: these are not pleasant companions, and we know that you would like to drive them away as soon as possible, then use

"BULL'S KING OF PAIN."

Would you be cured almost immediately, of Bowel Complaint, Dysentery, Summer Complaint, Choices Mor-bus, Cramp Colie, Hisad Ache, Tooth, or any other none or pain, the remedy is simple and the cure certain. USE THE GREAT KING OF PAIN. Would you have your Scree, Swellings, Cuts, Burns Scalds, Bruises, or any other wounds healed, we repeat, use the

MAGICAL KING OF PAIN. Would you be cured of Scald Head, Stiff Joints, Sore Throat, Neuraigh, Sore Breast, Lumbugo, Tester or Rich Worm, Sait Khoum, lites of Foiscound Insects, Chapped Hauds, and all other Sores, either dry or running, we say again and again, rows agrapt is Dr. John Buil's "KING OF PAIN."

Would you be cared of King's Evil, Cancer, Tumors Eruptions, or any disease of the Skin caused by impure blood, tonn use Dr. John limit's Saresparitic internally and the King of Pain externally, nothing can be more certain than a speedy and effectual curs. CONTRACT OF INSURANCE OFFERS an expedient, by means of which pru-dent men escape losses. They transfer to others the risks which inevitably cause them.—

others the risks which inevitably cause includes For a small consideration, these risks, which might in an unlucky event, rais individuals, are safely assumed by Companies well organised and judiciously managed. Such an institution is the PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY

Hartford, Conn. This Company bases its operations upon such a perfected plan of cash premiums, well scattered risks and long experience in estimating hazards, that the interests of all concerned are protected. The Company receives from almost innumerablesources and in small sums, a large annual deposite. From this fund, held as a public trust, losses are paid. To secure for the public and the Company a permanent shiflity to meet every fair deare paid. To secure for the public and the Com-pany a permanent ability to meet every fair de-mand, all erroneous or fraudulent claims are of course rejected. This is the only plan of Insu-rance which can long deserve the public confi-dence, and the undersigned, agents, confidently in-vite their friends to secure themselves at their Agency, against

FIRE. Perils of Navigation.

The advantages of this contract need scarcely be urged upon wealthy menor merchants, for they rarely neglect it, and if they do, fires leave them other resources. It is especially valuable to laboring men, mechanics, and others of moderate means—who, perhaps have little else than a home and its contents in the world.

These should never neglect to insure; a fire which may visit them at any hour, would leave them homeless, and with no capital but their labor, to begin again the struggle of life, and years of toil and watching must pass before they can regain what they have lost, if indeed it is ever done.—To such, insurance is a duty. If the individual is worth little, the expense is less; if he owns much property, still the expense is less; if he owns much property, still the expense is less; if he is overtaken by misfortune, and his all laid in ashes, he receives a recompense in a cash capital equal to receives a recompense in a cash capital equal to his loss, and may soon restore what has been de-

Here was hope for the sick recorded long ago and every year adds new proof to the assurance that these promises shall not fail.

As medical science discovers and designates the remedies nature has given, one by one, the discases that afflict our race yield to the control of art.—Of all the maladies we suffer from, none has carried more victims to an untimely grave than Consumption of the Lungs. Subjoined we give some evidence that this too may be cured, and that Pulmonary Complaints, in all their forms, may be resumption of the Lungs. Subjoined we give some evidence that this too may be cured, and that Pulmonary Complaints, in all their forms, may be removed by Cherry Pectoral.

Space will not permit us to publish here any proportion of the cures it has effected, but the Agents named below will furnish our circular free, whereon are full particulars, and indisputable proof of these facts.
